Child Trust Fund for Looked After Children- Information for those reaching age 18

What is a Child Trust Fund?

Child Trust Funds are long-term tax-free savings accounts for children.

Any child born in the UK between 1 September 2002 and 2 January 2011 was entitled to a Child Trust Fund. The Government contributed a £250 voucher for each child. The parents or other persons in a position of responsibility for the child were responsible for opening the CTF. Furthermore, children who turned seven between 1 September 2009 and 31 July 2010 or who qualified for Disability Living Allowance between 6 April 2009 and 5 April 2011 were eligible for extra payments from the government into their CTF.

What is special about Child Trust Funds for Looked after Children?

Since October 2017 The Share Foundation, a registered charity, has been the organisation authorised by the government manage the Child Trust Funds for all looked after children. The Share Foundation will also be raising funds which it will contribute to the Child Trust Funds that it manages.

Who decides how to invest the money in a Child Trust Fund for looked after children?

The Share Foundation obtains independent advice from financial advisers about how the money should be invested.

What changes now I am 18?

When you become 18 you are entitled to access the funds. You can then choose, for example, whether to invest in an Individual Savings Account (ISA) or draw out the money. If you make no decision the Child Trust Fund will automatically become an ISA in your name.

What do I have to do to access my account?

Prior to your 18th birthday, The Share Foundation will send you details of your Child Trust Fund (via the Local Authority) and advise you of the procedure you will need to follow to take control of your account. You will need to contact the Child Trust Fund provider as soon as possible after receiving the letter as the account will automatically become an ISA on your 18th birthday and will no longer be subject to active investment decisions on your behalf.

How can I see how much money is in the Child Trust Fund or how it is performing?

Regular Child Trust Fund valuations are sent to the local authority, and you can obtain a copy of the latest figure from them. Once you reach 18, you will need to take on the responsibility of managing your own account.

Can I get advice and support on how to understand my money better as part of the scheme?

Yes - a programme of financial education support is available to you. Materials for young people in care, as well as Local Authorities, Corporate Parents and carers have been developed by pfeg and are available via <https://sharefound.org> or the Young Money (formerly pfeg) website at <https://www.young-money.org.uk/>

Telephone support is also available to advise you on further educational materials that will help you learn how to manage your money, including your Child Trust Fund. Call Young Money on 0300 6660 127 to find out more about the games, tools and booklets that may be of use to you.

Is it possible to contact the Share Foundation and get further information?
